The Hawaiian bark Mauna Ala, get away today for San Francisco.

The steamer Iwalani was 18 hours coming from Makaweli on Saturday, the distance being 117 miles. This is seven hours longer than her average time. Strong head wind and sea was the cause of the long passage.

Griffiths, arrived in port Saturday STEAMSHI The bark Albert, Captain T. H. Francisco. This is considered a very fast trip for this time of the year. The vessel brought a general cargo and ten passengers.

There will be no coasting steamers leaving today if the present wind continues blowing as strong as it has for the past three or four days.

Popular Captain Griffiths of the bark Albert is keeping up the reputation of his handsome vessel. The New and Fine Al Steel Steamship Notwithstanding head winds for the first few days of the voyage, and very stormy weather toward the end, he brought the bark in on good time.

The steamer Claudine will tow the barkentine Mary Winkelman to Kahului tomorrow afternoon, weather permitting.

The Wilder Steamship Company will put the steamer Likelike into commission again this week. She will go on the marine railway and receive a thorough cleaning after which she will ply on the Hamakua

The bark Martha Davis, Captain Soule, sailed at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon for Hongkong. She went away in ballast. One of the men who has been working on board of her refused to go just as she was leaving the wharf, and he jumped Mails and Passengers for the above ports. overboard. Patterson, the boatman, picked him up and brought him ashore. The fellow said he did not sign the ship's articles, so he was released. The four deserters from the Martha Davis are still at large.

The schooner C. F. Crocker will leave Hilo today for San Francisco. The brigantine Lurline will leave Hilo for San Francisco during this

The sealing schooner Willard Ainsworth, Captain Crochett, arrived on Saturday morning, 23 days from Seattle, bound for the Japan seas. She called here for water. Pilot Macaulay sailed her into port.

The C. A. S. S. Arawa, 5000 tons, John Stuart, commander, was docked at the P. M. S. S. Company's wharf last Saturday morning. She left Sydney January 19th at 2 a.m., and arrived at Fiji on the 25th at 5 a.m.; left again same day at 10 a.m. for Honolulu, arriving here February 3d at 7:30 a.m. Had unfavorable weather since leaving Fiji. The Arawa brought a general cargo for this port, and had in transit 1200 tons of cargo.
